THE LEGACY INCOME PLAYBOOK

How everyday people are getting paid every single day with a 25-year-old powerhouse —
without selling, recruiting like a maniac, or starting from scratch.

FREE · 7 PAGES · UNDER 10 MIN

Why most people never see their first real paycheck.

If you've been here before, you already know the feeling. You bought the course. You built the website. You watched the webinars. And six weeks in, you've made $14 in commissions and your spouse is asking when you're going to get a "real job".

You're not lazy. You're not bad at this. The system most opportunities hand you was never built for the average person to win. It was built to look like the average person could win.

HERE'S WHAT NOBODY TELLS YOU:

- ✓ Most opportunities pay you weekly or monthly. If you're trying to build belief in yourself, waiting 30 days for a $67 payout is a great way to quit before momentum kicks in.
- ✓ Most teams "train" you by handing you a script and a website and saying "good luck". You spend more time figuring out what to do than actually doing it.
- ✓ Most companies are 2–3 years old and praying their next funding round lands. Your business is only as stable as the company underneath it.

"What you're about to read isn't motivation. It's mechanics. When you change the mechanics, the results change with them."

Income comes from four things — not effort.

You can outwork everyone in the room and still go nowhere if any one of the four below is wrong. Get all four right, and the math just works.

TRENDS

Are you riding a wave that's growing — or one that's already crested?

TIMING

Is the company past startup risk but still has runway ahead?

VEHICLE

Does the actual product / system / pay plan reward small effort?

MENTOR

Is the person above you actually invested in your win?

"Get even one wrong and the math doesn't work. The reason most people fail isn't that they didn't try hard enough — it's that they tried hard at the wrong setup."

Position over prediction.

We don't have a crystal ball. But you don't need one when the company already passes the four-point test.

$5T+

Global wellness economy. Growing faster than the global economy itself.

25+ yrs

4Life is debt-free with 25+ years of operating runway. Past the risk. Before the peak.

50+

Countries with full logistics, currency conversion, and compliance handled. You build worldwide from your phone.

80+

Products anchored on 4Life's patented Transfer Factor immune-support technology. Real consumers, real reorders.

TEAM

The Life Rewards Plan pays daily — not weekly, not monthly. Builder bonuses stack on top. Infinity payline.

"You don't need a perfect company. You need one that's already proven, with a pay plan that rewards your effort early enough to keep you going."

Five ways the system pays you — daily.

The Life Rewards Plan isn't "one way to earn." It's five overlapping ways, engineered so the same activity unlocks more than one paycheck.

- 1 Direct Referral Bonus
When someone you personally introduce starts, you get a same-day commission. Day one income.
- 2 Level Commissions
Earn percentages off the volume of people three levels deep — every order, every refill, every month.
- 3 Builder Bonuses
Hit specific milestones in your first 30 / 60 / 90 days and stack additional payouts on top of the regular plan.
- 4 Leadership Pools
As your team grows, you tap into company-wide leadership bonus pools — paid monthly, on top of everything else.
- 5 Infinity Payline
When the people on your team grow their teams, the income from those new builders pays you too. Build once. Get paid as they grow.

"Build once. Get paid over and over. That's the entire game. The plan isn't complicated — most people just never see it explained without the hype.

◆ FOUNDER & DIAMOND ELITE

Meet Ron Saunders.

37 years in direct sales. A builder with a servant's heart. The architect behind every move on this team.

Ron founded Diamond Legacy Build to do what most of this profession won't: actually hand you a working playbook and walk with you while you run it. He's been in direct sales since 1988 — and was one of the first people to ever market a home business online, back in 1994.

He served as a US Army Medic, holds a BCABA, and works with children on the autism spectrum using nutrition to help them live healthier lives. Eleven years ago he came to 4Life for his own health, after service-related issues. He never left.

Today he leads a small, hand-picked team — building real legacy income through a system anyone can run. He doesn't sell dreams. He hands you a playbook that's already working, then walks beside you while you run it.

◆ DIAMOND ELITE

Why most people quit — and why our team doesn't.

Most people don't quit because the opportunity wasn't real. They quit because they were alone. No one returned their text. No one walked them through their first awkward conversation. No one was actually watching when they hit their first wall.

Ron flipped that. The Diamond Legacy Build team is built around a structural support system — not a sales pep talk. Here's the difference:

Strategic placements.

When Ron brings new people in, those people are placed inside the existing team — including yours. You get spillover support during the exact weeks most opportunities lose people.

A real, repeatable script.

Not a generic "here's a website, good luck". An actual call-by-call playbook proven on his real team. You don't have to invent anything.

Direct access.

Ron picks up the phone. Sends voice memos. Walks you through your first three conversations live. That's not common in this profession.

Real risk reversal.

If the first 15 minutes with Ron don't show you a clean path, you walk away with the playbook and his blessing. No follow-ups, no pressure.

Three doors. Pick one.

You don't need to decide your future today. You just need to take the next clean step. Whichever one feels right, take it.
